

ANIMAL SERVICES

What types of animals am I allowed to have and how many?

A resident can have a maximum of six animals in the following species:

- | | | |
|--------|---------------------|-----------------------|
| Dog | Cat | Ferret |
| Rabbit | Chicken (hens only) | Pot-bellied pig (one) |

What registration is required and why?

All dogs, cats, and ferrets must have a current rabies vaccination, and must be registered through the City of Lewisville. All animals must wear the rabies and registration tags at all times. The city registration tag allows staff immediate access to owners information should the animal be collected by Animal Services and expedite the return process.

How much does it cost to register an animal?

- Sterilized (spayed or neutered) animals - $7 per year
- Non-sterilized animals - $30 per year
- Replacement tags - $1 per tag
- Registration must be purchased for one or three years depending on the expiration or duration of the animal's rabies vaccination.

How do I register an animal?

Online at petdata.com/for-pet-ownership/lws or by mail by sending a copy of each animal's rabies vaccination certificate, proof of sterilization, and a check for the full fees made out to City of Lewisville to:

How do I report an animal issue?

For issues such as loose animal, stray animal, wild animal, deceased animal in the streets/neighborhood, animal cruelty, or excessive animals:

- Call the shelter 972.219.3478 during normal business hours.
- Send email to lewisvillepets@gmail.com.

For injured or orphaned wildlife, contact Animal Help Now at ahnow.org. While Lewisville shelter staff will respond to injured or orphaned wildlife calls, the shelter is not a licensed rehab facility and are unable to care for injured or orphaned wildlife. Staff will work to find a rehab facility.
